SHE MAY BE ATTORNEY GENERAL.

The People's Party Nominee in Montana Has Seen a Good Deal of Life.

The spectacle of a female attorney general for a big state is among the possibilities in Montana. The People's party nominee for that office, Miss Ella L. Knowles, is the only woman lawyer in the state. The constitution does not say that the attorney general, or any other officer for that matter, shall not be a woman. It infers as much by speaking of the attorney general as "he" and referring to "his duties." But if Miss Knowles should, by any chance get the most votes she will take the office unless the highest court in the state or the United States says a personal pronoun is strong enough to keep her out of it.

She says so herself. Lawyers of the other sex say the same thing or more. They say that in the event of such a thing as her election there will be no occasion for a court to pass on the question, in other words, that no one would be bold enough to contest her claims to the office. As one of them puts it, "No gentleman would make such a contest against a woman, and it is to be presumed that both the old parties will put gentlemen on their tickets."

The nomination of Miss Knowles was not made without consulting her. The leaders of the People's party asked her if she would run if nominated. She said she would. They nominated her and she accepted. Now she says she is in the fight to win. "I will canvass this whole state," she says.

The People's party candidate for attorney general of Montana was born in Northwood, Rockingham county, N. H., and is the daughter of David and Louisa Knowles. Her father still resides on the old homestead in New Hampshire, in what is known as the Knowles district. Her mother died when Miss Knowles was fourteen years of age. Miss Knowles was graduated from the Northwood seminary at the age of fifteen, and one year later from the New Hampshire State Normal school. Afterward she went to Bates' college, Lewiston, Me., from which she was graduated in the class of '84 with high honors, receiving the degree of A. B.

Four years later Bates' college conferred on her the degree of A. M. When she entered Bates' college there were only four other girl students there. The prejudice against admitting female students was still strong at the college, but not so strong as it had been some years before, when the only girl there was forced to leave because the boys decided to strike in a body unless she did. So Miss Knowles has gone through all the various degrees of ostracism which attend the efforts of women to make their way in fields which the men had been in the habit of considering peculiarly their own.

Not only did she do this at school, but he had to go through the same ordeal when she hung out her sign. Still she is not a man hater. It is also to be noted that during her time at Bates' college she was the only woman in a party of eight who took part in a political debate, and she carried off the prize.

In 1883 Miss Knowles commenced the study of law in the office of Burham & Brown, in Manchester, N. H. She prosecuted her studies there about a year, when, on account of ill health she came west and took the chair of elocution and Latin in an Iowa college. Being advised by physicians to go among the mountains, she came to Helena in the fall of 1887. She taught one year in the Central school here and then resumed the study of law. There was considerable prejudice against allowing her to practice. So she went to work among the members of the last territorial legislature, that of 1888-9, and had a bill introduced and passed to admit women to practice law. She was admitted to the bar Dec. 1, 1890—Helena (Mont.) Independent.

A Mistake Made by Many Mothers. "It's a mistake," says a physician, "to let city children do too much of the running wild business in their summer outings. People have the idea that 'in the country' one may do anything or eat anything with impunity. Laws for healthful living operate as much under the pines and by the sea as within the city limits, but not many realize it. Mothers often complain to me that they bring their children back in the autumn thinner than when they went away."

"They may do that and still have them stronger, but many times children are allowed to run too incessantly. It takes a strong child to thrive on continuous exercise, and city children are not used to tramping up hill and down and over rough roads and fields. Make them stretch out under the trees or on the river bank an hour every day, and more if you can, and they'll gain by it."—Her Point of View in New York Times.

The Fish Caught the Man. While capturing a large gar in the river Monday, a fisherman became entangled in his line, was dragged from his skiff by the fish and nearly drowned. Help arriving, he was rescued and the gar landed. It weighed 152 pounds.—Velasco Cor. Galveston News.

Snow and Apple Blossoms. When the apple trees in Franklin County, Me., were in blossom on a recent Sunday, snow claimed to be from six to nine inches deep covered the Rangeley district, and a man rode in his sleigh through the streets of Phillips.

An enterprising New Yorker, temporarily sojourning in England, has just published a "Guide Book to the Haunted Houses of London." There are over 1,000 houses so designated in the great metropolis.

WEAVER IN SAN FRANCISCO.

Thousands of people crowded the Mechanics' Pavilion, San Francisco, to hear General Weaver, the champion of free coinage and People's candidate for President of the United States. His speech sparked with bright points, which were rapturously applauded, and the people saw that the person who had been represented by the Wall street organs as a flat money crank, is an intelligent gentleman, whose ideas of government are perfectly in accord with those of the masses of the people. The papers, with the exception of the most pronounced goldbug organs, speak well of General Weaver, and concede that he was accorded a warm reception by the people. The Examiner says editorially of him and the party:

"The people's party has entered on the campaign with spirit and energy. The tour of General Weaver, its candidate for the Presidency, shows that it is well organized and has aroused a widespread interest. The attention the candidates has received from the people on the trip to the Coast and the general curiosity shown are somewhat remarkable when they are attracted by the representative of a third party. Colorado and Nevada have even been roused to enthusiasm through the free coinage views of the People's candidate and have given him a hearty welcome."

"The reception of last night in this city shows that San Francisco is ready to give the new candidate a fair field. The course that greets the People's party leader is an evidence that there is at least interest in the cause he represents, and a readiness to listen to anything that may be said in its favor. This may not mean a large number of votes, but it is certainly a compliment to the party and its candidate."

"The People's party is an important sign of the times. It has crystallized the discontent of the last years of the century. It represents a good deal of sincere objection to things as they are and is believed that some large social and political problems can be solved by a short cut through legislation and government."

"Whether the People's party proves to be one of the ephemeral organizations that last for a campaign are heard of no more, or becomes a permanent force in the politics of the country, what is good in its ideas will survive and find practical realization in our Government, and what is bad or impracticable will disappear. But just now it has the enthusiastic support of many thousands of sincere believers, and some of its leaders do not hesitate to make unbounded claims in regard to its strength. As an organization that will cut considerable of a figure in the campaign it is worth watching with respectful attention."

GETTING PEOPLE TO THINKING.

The agents and organs of Wall street have had their cry of "seven-cent dollar" silenced by a shrewd Connecticut business man who desires to buy those cheap dollars. This gentleman is a capitalist named S. D. Bingham, who believes in the use of silver as well as gold for monetary purposes. He advertises in the Waterbury, American and the New York World, both Wall street papers as follows:

"Wanted—100,000 41 1/4 grain 70-cent silver dollars, for which I will pay 90 cents each."

So far Mr. Bingham has not been offered a dollar, but he has the satisfaction of knowing that his advertisement has set workingmen and others, who were being deceived by the demagogic cry of the Wall street hucksters, to thinking, and that is a good deed. As a silver dollar is for every purpose as good as a gold dollar, and the free coinage men do not propose to change its size or weight, but give the metal which they contain a fixed value, Eastern people, when they once get to thinking, will see that the proposition to open the mints to silver as well as gold, as had been done from the establishment of the mint in 1792 to 1873, is neither radical nor revolutionary in its character, but is a plain business-like movement in the interest of the masses of the people."

MILLS MISREPRESENTED.

There is a rumor abroad that D. O. Mills read the riot act to some of the men under his control who have been firing with the Silver or People's party. The Journal is informed through a reliable source that Mr. Mills did nothing of the kind. On the contrary he said to Senator Sharon of Virginia that while he would like to have the State cast its electoral vote for Harrison and Reid he did not blame the people of Nevada for doing all in their power for free coinage and fighting those who are opposed to it.

The latest report from the Alabama election is that Jukes (Democrat) is given from $9,000 to 12,000 majority, but every vote, in the black belt had to be counted twice. Each and all of the white counties gave Kuhn, the People's candidate, a majority and he proposes to contest the election.

The Great Hal Pointer-Direct Race.

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., August 11.—Nine thousand people were present at the Hal Pointer-Direct match. A scene of great enthusiasm ensued as Direct took the turn down the stretch to timber his legs. Betting was 25 to 6 in favor of Hal Pointer, but Direct captured all the hearts if not all the pocketbooks, and received more applause than his swift competitor.

The two horses came down the stretch neck and neck, and as they passed under the wire Pointer had the pole. They kept their position to the turn when Geers pulled Pointer a length ahead. At the half Starr brought Direct close onto the flank of the gelding. Direct could not stand the pace and Pointer steadily drew away till he gained a length at the last turn. Starr fought bravely, but could not lessen the distance, although it was evident Direct gained on the home stretch, but was not able to win. Starr pulled up a little and came in a length and a half behind his rival. Time by quarters: .82%, 1:04%, 1:37% and 2:09.

The horses started in the second lead with Direct at Pointer's girth, and went as if tied together for the first quarter. Then Pointer drew away again, but on the back stretch Direct caught up. At the half Pointer spurted, leaving Direct again. At the head of the stretch Direct was going gamely and fast but could not lessen the distance, and the finish was made with Direct a length behind. Time, 2:13%.

In the third heat Direct went full tilt to the first quarter and then visibly sulked, and Pointer went around the mile two lengths ahead, a hundred yards from the wire he gave up absolutely in disgust and jogged in three lengths and half behind the victor. Time, 2:13%.

When Nancy Hanks, with her owner, Budd Dohle, as driver, appeared they were received with applause, which subsided into breathless suspense as the little mare shot under the wire in a race against time. The track was fully two seconds slower than when Allerton made his record on it. Horse and driver made a game effort and were greeted with cheers when the starter announced that the mare kept up to the record and made a mile in 2:09. Time by quarters: .83, 1:05, 1:37% and 2:09.

His Whereabouts Unknown.

SAN FRANCISCO, August 11.—Judge Henry Schaefer, the discoverer of the Bonanza mine near Kingman, A. T., has been missing for some time past and his relatives and business associates in this city are growing anxious regarding his whereabouts. He left this city July 26th, for the purpose of closing a deal in a portion of his mining interests in Arizona with parties in Reno, Nev. Since then nothing has been heard from him except by the report of a party who saw him take the train for Salt Lake on the 2d inst. His absence at the present time is surprising, owing to the fact that a large sum of money, over $150,000, is now in the bank here, awaiting his return for distribution. Of this amount two-thirds was to be paid to him the largest owner of the Arizona properties. The business which took him away from here was the sale of one-half of the Hulda and Mayflower locations in the Arizona group of mines. These he had set aside for his children and for the portion sold he was to receive in the neighborhood of $17,500. The purchaser was J. E. Stroh of Reno.

Lloyd Tevis Resigns.

SAN FRANCISCO, August 11.—At the annual meeting of the Directors of the Wells, Fargo Express Company to-day President Lloyd Tevis tendered his resignation, and John J. Valentine, who has heretofore held the position of Manager, was elected to succeed him. Tevis had, at the time of his resignation, been at the head of the Express Company for twenty years, in addition to holding the Presidency of Wells, Fargo & Company's Bank, which, it is stated, he will retain. Valentine has had charge of the management of the Company's affairs for a number of years, and is as familiar with the details of its operations as any one connected with the company. A new Board of Directors and other officers were also chosen.

New Cruiser Launched.

Boston, August 11.—The new cruiser Marblehead was launched this afternoon in the presence of a large number of people. The cruiser has a displacement of 3,000 tons, is to carry 10 guns in the main battery and to make a speed of 18 knots.

A Murder Most Foul.

RIVERSIDE, Cal., August 11.—While Mrs. Wall, wife of Peter Wall, a prominent business man of Elsinore, was driving through Temescal canyon to-day, accompanied by her son Ira, a young man, Elmer Walters, stepped from the roadside, and raising a gun he was carrying, fired at the occupants of the buggy, killing Ira Wall instantly and badly wounding Mrs. Wall.

The news of the shooting caused much excitement in town and a posse was immediately formed to go in pursuit of the murderer. The latter was overtaken near South Elsinore and was turned over to Sheriff Seymour.

There has been considerable trouble between the Wall and Walters families over disputed water rights and the court proceedings resulted in favor of Wall.

About a week ago Mr. Wall was accosted by two masked men while driving through the canyon and warned to leave the country. He thought lightly of the matter at the time but now believes the murder had been deliberately planned.

The Pinkertons Sued.

PHILADELPHIA, August 11.—William R. Letar brought suit for damages to-day against the Pinkertons on account of the Homestead riot. In his statement Letar says he was employed by the Pinkertons to act as watchman of certain buildings in New York to which the defendants falsely and deceitfully pretended to be conducting him. Then follows an account of the fight with the strikers, and Letar says as a result of being compelled to run the gauntlet through the mob, one of his vital organs was permanently injured, incapacitating him from his accustomed labor. Twenty thousand dollars damages is claimed.

Rioters Found Guilty.

BONN, Idaho, August 11.—U. S. District Judge Beatty this afternoon held that eleven of the Coeur d'Alene rioters were guilty of contempt of court in violating the injunction served upon them restraining them from interfering with the mine owners in the operation of the mines. Judge Beatty sentenced the prisoners to terms ranging from four to eight months. Ten of the men who have been on trial were discharged.

Murdered in Her Room.

DELANO, Cal., August 11.—Reta, the 14-year-old daughter of Charles Albert, living six miles south of Delano, was found dead in her room last evening with a gaping gunshot wound in her head. The Coroner's Jury to-day rendered a verdict that the wound was produced by a weapon in the hands of persons unknown to the jury.

Olympia Convention Nominees.

OLYMPIA, August 11.—The Republican State Convention adjourned to-night after nominating a full State ticket. The nominees for Congress are John L. Wilson of Spokane and Wm. H. Doolittle of Pierce, for Governor, John H. McGraw of Seattle, for Lieutenant Governor, F. H. Luco of Lincoln.

A Murderer Arrested.

SANTA ANA, Cal., August 11.—Francisco Torres, the murderer of Captain McElroy, was safely landed in jail by Sheriff Lucy at noon to-day. Considerable excitement prevails, but no violence is anticipated. He confesses to killing McElroy, but claims it was done in self defense.

NYE COUNTY REPUBLICANS.

Ninety-Nine Per Cent of Them for Weaver and Field.

Belmont Courier.

The Belmont Courier is in receipt of several letters from Republicans of this county, in which they discuss the present political situation. These correspondents hope that the next Republican Convention of Nyce county will not endorse the Harrison and Field electoral ticket, should such a ticket be nominated by the next Republican State Convention.

The Courier is in a position to state positively that the Republicans of Belmont and vicinity are also strongly opposed to the endorsement of Harrison and Reid for President and Vice President, respectively. The Courier's correspondents further state that they hope every nominee for legislative and county office shall be a firm supporter of the Weaver and Field electoral ticket, and shall be pledged by the county convention, prior to nomination, to not only support the People's party Presidential nominees at the polls on the 8th of next November, but also to vote for no man candidate for Congressional, State, Legislative, county or township offices who is not a firm believer in a measure which will provide for the free and unlimited coinage of silver and gold at the present ratio of 16 to 1. The Courier feels confident that the wishes of the correspondents will be gratified by the next Republican Convention of Nyce county, and we predict that no man will be nominated for legislative or county office by the Republican county Convention unless he has signed the silver pledge and is an active member of the Nyce county Silver Club. From information received at this office fully ninety-nine per cent of the Republicans of Nyce county are in favor of pledging the future nominees for Weaver and Field for President and Vice President, respectively, and for silver men for legislative and county office.

A Nine-year-old Hero.

In a ward of one of the city hospitals lies a little boy who is slowly recovering from a surgical operation. He is only nine years old. A wagon wheel rolled over him about three weeks ago, and then the surgeon amputated one little leg. But the owner is a brave chap and patient, and his bravery has won for him a passport into the heart of every attendant who has seen him. He has been very greatly interested in the invalid's shoe the good nurse has been knitting for him out of bright worsted. She finished the shoe last week, and he asked to keep it by his pillow where he could see it. He gazed at the bright bit of footgear with infinite satisfaction, and then asked:

"When are you going to make the other one?"

"The other one, dear? What other one?"

He glanced down at the one foot without a mate.

"Yes—I know, I don't need—but just—one—one, do I?"

Then there came a half smothered sob, the brave little face turned toward the wall and not even the nurse saw the big round tear that rolled down to the pillow. The sorrow of a man had come to the nine-year-old boy.—New York Recorder.

Counterfeit Fives Afloat.

Business men in East Baltimore are agitated over counterfeit five dollar notes. Nearly every day one or more of these notes turn up at the bank counters. The notes are imitations of treasury notes of the series of 1880. The paper is of a poor quality and lighter in color than the genuine note. Especially noticeable is the poor engraving. It seems to be the work of an amateur or of a very nervous person. The picture of Jackson looks like the impression of a wood cut. But one feature is anywhere near perfection, and that is the signatures of Registrar Rosecrans and Treasurer Huston. These are excellently counterfeited and would baffle any one but an expert. Bank officials think a number of these counterfeits have been put into circulation within the past week or two in that section of the city, and but few yet gotten out of that vicinity.—Baltimore American.

A Bad Year for Railroad Building.

From the returns now received at this office, collected with unusual care and thoroughness, we find that during the six months from Jan. 1 to July 1 there have been laid in the United States 1,866 miles of new main track on 115 lines in thirty-five of the states and territories. Last year at this time we found that 1,728 miles of track had been laid, so that it would appear that there has thus far been a falling off of over 25 per cent, compared with the same period of 1891. But a review of the work in progress throughout the country does not warrant the belief that the falling off for the entire year will be in any such proportion. Last year showed the smallest aggregate of track laying, 4,200 miles, that has been reported in this country since 1885.—Chicago Rail-way Age.

Salmon Packers Discouraged.

There is no improvement in the salmon outlook. Packers are inclined to take a gloomy view of the situation, and are of opinion that the pack will be 50,000 to 75,000 cases short of that of last year. Some of the packers have ceased taking orders for fish, having already disposed of as many cases as they are likely to put up unless the fishing takes a change for the better.—Portland Oregonian.

Fire from Bird's Nests.

On taking off the roof of a house near Cambridge, which had been on fire, it was found that a quantity of straw had been carried by birds between the roof and the ceiling, and this had been ignited from a hole in the chimney. Altogether the birds had taken up three or four sacks of rubbish.—Boston Letter.

El Lachapelle de Verdi was in town yesterday. He reports the little mountain city running along in the even tenor of its way.

The Knights of Pythias reunion at Truckee to-day and to-morrow promises to be very largely attended and to be a grand affair.

The Weaver campaign is just two weeks old. In that time the People's party has made terrific ravages in the ranks of the two old parties.

The most powerful weapon in the hands of the two old parties is the Associated Press, which exercises a censorship of the news in this country.

Carnegie, when in San Francisco, told the reporters that "the greatest discovery of his life was that the man who does the work never gets rich."

Lyon county Republicans, all of whom are members of the Silver League, have issued a call for primaries to elect delegates to the State Convention.

R. D. Clark and his son, Harry S. Clark, have returned from a trip to the mountains. They visited Wobber, Independence and Meadow lakes while absent.

General Weaver is a member of the M. E. Church and General Field is a member of the Baptist Church. Harrison and Cleveland are both Presbyterians.

Quite a number of young men in Washoe county will cast their first vote this year and all heard from up to date will cast it for Weaver and the People's party.

A dispatch received here last evening from Congressman Bartine says that he was to leave Council Bluffs last evening and will arrive in Reno Monday morning.

Carson weddings have a remarkable faculty of getting on the tap before they actually occur. The Carson papers say that two in high life are in that condition now.

The San Francisco Post, a strong Harrison paper, candidly admits that "General Weaver's political record has been spotless. He is popular with even his political foes."

The Truckee Republican says a tremendous fire is raging in the woods near Boot and fears are entertained that it may yet communicate with the brewery buildings.

Yesterday the Supreme Court of the State handed down a decision affirming the judgment of the District Court in the case of Borden vs. Clow. The case was appealed from this country.

The Silver State will present the Silver party of the county which casts the largest percentage of its vote for Weaver and Field or the Silver electoral ticket a silver banner costing not less than $100.

NEVADA STATE BIBLE SOCIETY.

Proceedings of the Meeting of the Board of Examiners.

A meeting of the Board of Managers of the N. Vada State Bible Society (a branch of the American Bible Society) was held at the office of W. Webster, Esq., on Wednesday, August 10th, 1892.

The meeting was called to order by Mr. Webster, the President of the Board, and it appearing that the Secretary of the Board had removed from the State, on motion, W. L. Knox was elected Secretary to fill the vacancy.

Dr. Thompson, the District Superintendent of the American Bible Society, was present, and addressed the Board upon matters pertaining to the interests of the Society, and presented a report showing the present condition of its work in Nevada.

On motion, it was ordered that all money collected by Dr. Thompson on his present visit to Nevada for the benefit of the Bible Society of Nevada be forwarded to the American Bible Society in New York, to be credited to the Nevada branch of that Society.

The matter of canvassing Western Nevada for the sale of bibles and to supply destitute families or individuals was left to the discretion of the District Superintendent.

On motion, Dr. Thompson was authorized to supply Mrs. Westlake from the books in the depository in Reno with copies for distribution.

On motion of Mr. Magill a committee of three, consisting of Messrs. Webster, Sessions and Knox, was appointed on depositary, to control the books and other property of this society.

It was ordered that the receipts from sales of books of the society be paid over quarterly to the Treasurer, and W. L. Knox was elected Treasurer of the Board.

The report of District Superintendent Thompson shows the following account with the depository:

BARRY'S "DEATH SONG."

It is the Only Funeral Service Held Over the Remains of Harman Wright.

The funeral services over the remains of the late Harman Wright, were conducted yesterday by T. V. Julien. No clergyman or priest was present. Some eight years ago, Mr. Wright, who was a freedman, expressed the desire that the obituary service upon his death should be conducted by his friend, Mr. Julien, and that it should consist simply in the reading of the death song of the poet, W. A. Barry, and prefaced by such reflections as Mr. Julien might desire to make. His wishes were complied with. In speaking of the transition called death, Mr. Julien stated that he believed the soul of man was not the better or the worse for the creed he believed in here, but was judged according as he had followed or transgressed the golden rule, to do unto others as one would wish to be done by. Barry's "Death Song" was then read, the closing stanza of which are singularly beautiful:

"Oh! let the faithful few Whose hearts are half so close to mine, That they with time the deeper grow And while the golden sunbeams fall In floods of light upon my pall Let them in softer tones recall

"Some tender memory of the dead Some virtuous act, some word or power Which I have lost or gained, Which loved ones treasured to that hour; Recount the deeds which I admired, The motive which my soul inspired, The hope by which my heart was fired."

The Carson News in its last issue has suddenly wakened up to the fact that Weaver is invading California. The surprise is not entirely confined to the News, as a number of the press of California have discovered the same fact, but the glorious anti-slavery privilege was reserved for the stupendous Little State Capital porous plaster to work itself into a heat of sputtering indignation, strike an attitude, wave the bloody shirt and want to know why in thunder Weaver "neglected to bring his pal, the rebel," along with him so that the News could hear a "genuine rebel yell." Will the audience please rise?

"German Syrup"

Here is an incident from the South

—Mississippi, written in April, 1890, just after the Grippe had visited that country.

"I am a farmer, one of those who have to rise early and work late. At the beginning of last Winter I was on a trip to the City of Vicksburg, Miss., where I got well drenched in a shower of rain. I went home and was soon after seized with a dry, hacking cough. This grew worse every day, until I had to seek relief. I consulted Dr. Dixon who has since died, and he told me to get a bottle of Boschee's German Syrup. Meantime my cough grew worse and worse and then the Grippe came along and I caught that also very severely. My condition then compelled me to do something. I got two bottles of German Syrup. I began using them, and before taking much of the second bottle, I was entirely clear of the Cough that had hung to me so long, the Grippe, and all its bad effects. I felt tip-top and have felt that way ever since."

A Sure Cure for Bad Sons.

An Armenian woman was arrested at Angora a few days ago on the charge of having poisoned her son, Artin, a young man about thirty years of age. At the examination the woman made full avowals, declaring that she had taken the life of her son because she could no longer stand his misconduct. The woman was afterward subjected to a medical inspection, the physician declaring that she was not suffering from mental derangement.—Levant Herald.

A Iceboat Run by Steam.

An iceboat of new design is to be tried next winter. It is well known that the ordinary iceboat is entirely dependent on the wind, but the new vessel carries a steam attachment which renders it entirely independent of that source of motion. The craft is of the usual iceboat form, but is provided with a small boiler carrying 250 pounds pressure of steam and a small engine working on a pair of cogged drivers.—Milwaukee Wisconsin.

There's a patent medicine which is not a patent medicine—paradoxical as that may sound. It's a discovery! the golden discovery of medical science! It's the medicine for you—tired, run-down, exhausted, nerve-wasted men and women; for you sufferers from diseases of skin or scalp, liver or lungs—it's chance is with every one, its season always, because it aims to purify the fountain of life—the blood—upon which all diseases depend. The medicine is Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. The makers have enough confidence in it to sell it on trial. That is—you can get it from your druggist, and if it don't do what it's claimed to do, you can get your money back, every cent of it.

That's what the makers call taking the risk of their words.
